INFORMATION ON NOTIFICATION

The plaintiff must, after filing the application with the Tribunal administratif du logement, notify a copy to each party. When it is notified, the application must be accompanied by the exhibits supporting it or a list of the exhibits indicating that they are available on request. Proof of notification and a list of the exhibits must be filed in the record of the Tribunal.

The Tribunal may refuse to convene the parties to a hearing as long as the documents (list of exhibits and proof of notification) have not been filed in the record.

If proof of notification of the application is not filed within 45 days after the application is filed, the application expires and the Tribunal closes the record. However, if you are convened within that time period, you must bring proof of notification to the hearing, if it has not already been filed in the record. When sending proof of notification to the Tribunal, clearly indicate the record number(s) and the names of the parties concerned on each document.

Notification can be made by registered mail, by bailiff, in person by a courier service, by technological means, or by any appropriate method that provides the notifier with proof that the document was received. If the plaintiff is unable to notify using one of these methods, the Tribunal administratif du logement may authorize another mode of notification

CHANGE OF ADDRESS

You must notify the Tribunal and the other parties, without delay, of any change of address that occurs during the proceedings.

A party who fails to give notice of his or her change of address may not apply for revocation of a decision rendered against that party by invoking the fact that he or she did not receive the notice of hearing, if this notice was sent to the party's former address

CONCILIATION OFFER

You must determine if your litigation can be submitted to the Service de Conciliation of the Tribunal administratif du logement. This service is free of charge and has several

- · Your participation in conciliation does not mean that you acknowledge any liability or make an admission of any type whatsoever;
- Conciliation does not delay your case from being scheduled before the Tribunal;
- · Conciliation allows finding a solution which takes into consideration your interests and needs in order to resolve a dispute;
- · A conciliation session is confidential. Negotiations are conducted in a respectful atmosphere which fosters dialogue. You will accordingly be more comfortable to express your
- The process is simple and quick;
- · Sessions are presided by a neutral and impartial conciliator who ensures that discussions between the parties remain respectful and useful for the settlement of the litigation;
- · If the parties agree and want to do so, the agreement drafted by the conciliator may be confirmed by the Tribunal to have the same effect as a judgment.

For more details, please read the Conciliation between lessors and lessees page or view the short video dealing with conciliation and our Participant's Guidebook, available at www.tal.gouv.gc.ca. Please note that participation in conciliation is voluntary, as the parties are free to withdraw from the process at any time without having to justify anything. If all of the parties agree to participate in a conciliation session and if the circumstances are appropriate, you will receive a convocation to the conciliation session, which will specify the date, the time and the location where you will have to show up and the type of session (parties attending physically, by phone or videoconference). We ask you to be available at the time and on the date specified for the conciliation session. The sessions are held from Monday to Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. When litigation concerns only the fixation of rent, you must be available for a period of one hour. For other matters, you must be available for a period of 2 hours.

If mentioned in your application, your email will be used by the Service de Conciliation to contact you, for example, to forward you as the case may be, a confirmation of the conciliation session, the automatic reminders of this session or information about the follow up of your conciliation case.

Because the conciliation session is held on a voluntary basis, if you show interest in participating in the process, we must then determine if the other party is also interested in participating in it. It is only on receipt of session.	a positive answer from			d if the circumstances are appropriate, that v	ve will convene yo	ou to a co	nciliatio	n
