AGREEMENT

If all parties to the Joint application come to an agreement, the Tribunal closes the case when a copy of that agreement, signed by the parties, is filed, unless the plaintiffs request suspension of the case in writing. In this case, the application will not be put on the roll unless one party requests it in writing.

If an agreement is filed or reached at the hearing, it must be signed by the parties involved. The Tribunal can ratify it if it complies with the law, in which case it has the same effect as a decision that affects them.

We, the undersigned, ☐ have reached the attached agreement. ☐ agree to the following agreement:
