

AMENDMENT

No amendment is allowed if it is pointless or contrary to the interests of justice or if it stems from a completely new application unrelated to the original application.

INFORMATION ABOUT NOTIFICATION

The plaintiff must, after filing the amendment with the Tribunal administrative du logement, notify a copy to the lessor.

Proof of notification must be filed with the Tribunal. When filing proof of notification with the Tribunal, clearly indicate on each document the record number(s) and the names of the parties concerned.

Note that if the purpose of the amendment is to add a party, the rules governing application notifications apply with the necessary adjustments to reflect the nature of your application. To this end, we refer you to the information on the back of your original application.

The application can be notified by registered mail, by court bailiff, by delivering the document in person by messenger, using a technological means or by any appropriate method that gives the notifier proof of receipt of the document. If the plaintiff does not succeed in notifying the other parties using one of these methods, the Tribunal may, at any time, authorize another notification method.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS

You must inform the Tribunal and the other parties without delay of any change of address during the proceeding.

A party who fails to give notice of his or her change of address may not apply for revocation of a decision rendered against that party by invoking the fact that he or she did not receive the notice of hearing if this notice was sent to the party's former address.
