INFORMATION

A lessee may terminate (resiliate) their current lease if they are allocated a dwelling in low-rental housing or if, because of a decision by the Tribunal administratif du logement, the lessee is relocated in an equivalent dwelling corresponding to their needs.

A dwelling in low-rental housing is:

- A dwelling situated in low-rental housing owned or administered by the Société d'habitation du Québec
- A dwelling situated in low-rental housing owned or administered by a legal person whose operating costs are met, in whole or in part, by a subsidy from the Société d'habitation du Québec
- A dwelling in a building whose rent is fixed by a by-law of the Société d'habitation du Québec
- A dwelling for which the Société d'habitation du Québec agrees to pay an amount toward the rent

The notice must be accompanied by an attestation from the appropriate authority confirming that the lessee has been allocated a dwelling in low-rental housing.

The termination takes effect two months after a notice is sent to the lessor if the term of the lease is 12 months or more, or one month after a notice is sent if the term of the lease is indeterminate or less than 12 months (see table below). However, it may take effect earlier if the parties so agree or when the dwelling, having been vacated by the lessee, is leased by the lessor to another lessee during that period.

The lessee must pay rent until the date of the termination of the lease.

If part of the rent covers the cost of services of a personal nature, the lessee is only required to pay such fee(s) for services that were provided before they vacated the dwelling. The same applies to such services provided by the lessor under a contract separate from the lease.

If part of the rent covers the cost of other types of services, the lessee is required to pay such fee(s) until the date of the termination of the lease.

Table of notice deadlines (art. 1974 C.C.Q.)

Table of notice deadlines (art. 1974 C.C.Q.)
Unless the parties agree otherwise, the termination (resiliation) of the lease will take effect as follows:
Lease of 12 months or more	2 months after the lessee sends a notice of termination
Lease of less than 12 months
Lease with an indeterminate term
1 month after the lessee sends a notice of termination
However, in all cases, the termination of the lease may take effect earlier if the parties so agree or if the dwelling, having been vacated by the lessee, is leased by the lessor to another lessee during that period.
