INFORMATION

Required information

A lessee may assign their lease. They must give the lessor notice of their intention and the name and address of the intended assignee, and obtain the lessor's consent to the assignment.

The lessor may not refuse to consent to the assignment of the lease without a serious reason.

If the lessor refuses, they must inform the lessee of their reasons for refusing within 15 days of receiving the notice; otherwise, they are deemed to have consented.

A lessor who consents to the assignment of the lease may not exact any payment other than the reimbursement of any reasonable expenses resulting from the assignment.

The assignment of a lease discharges the former lessee of their obligations.
