INFORMATION

A lessee may terminate (resiliate) their current lease if they can no longer occupy their dwelling due to a disability (handicap).

The termination takes effect two months after a notice is sent to the lessor if the term of the lease is 12 months or more, or one month after a notice is sent if the term of the lease is indeterminate or less than 12 months (see table below). However, it may take effect earlier if the parties so agree or when the dwelling, having been vacated by the lessee, is leased by the lessor to another lessee during that period.

Table of notice deadlines (art. 1974 C.C.Q.)
Unless the parties agree otherwise, the termination (resiliation) of the lease will take effect as follows:
Lease of 12 months or more	2 months after the lessee sends a notice of termination
Lease of less than 12 months	1 month after the lessee sends a notice of termination
Lease with an indeterminate term
However, in all cases, the termination of the lease may take effect earlier if the parties so agree or if the dwelling, having been vacated by the lessee, is leased by the lessor to another lessee during that period.

The notice must be accompanied by an attestation from the appropriate authority, such as a medical assessment.

If part of the rent covers the costs of services of a personal nature provided to the lessee, the lessee is only required to pay the part of the rent that relates to the services that were provided before they vacated the dwelling. The same applies to the cost of such services if they are provided by the lessor under a contract separate from the lease.
